Housing Lack

Hits Nijmegen

Albany's housing shortage is clearly understood by residents of Nijmegen, her sister city in The Netherlands, according to a letter received by Miss Dorothy Rugge,

Writing to thank Miss Rugge for a gift of clothing and school supplies sent through St. Andrew's

Episcopal church, Herr Zegers-

"The greatest need in our city is houses. People live with each other, up and over. Here in Ni-Imegen, the substitute houses are like toy houses, when you push against them they fall down."

MISS BUGGE, who was grad-ated from State college, is taking graduate work in religious education at St. Margaret's college, Berkeley, Calif. The letter was trans-
